5212HL – EXPLORER CASES, ULTRALIGHT WATERTIGHT CASE

The Explorer Cases 5212HL is a lightweight professional case designed to ensure maximum protection for sensitive equipment even in the most extreme conditions. It is impact-resistant, waterproof, and resistant to external agents, making it ideal for technical and outdoor applications.

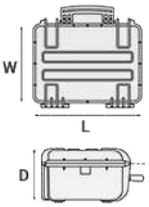

Equipped with a removable lid with slide-off opening, a practical ergonomic handle with soft grip coating, and robust pull-release latches, it ensures ease of use and reliability. The automatic pressure release valve maintains internal balance in case of changes in altitude or temperature, while the reinforced stainless steel padlockable points allow the use of padlocks for added security.

- Removable lid with slide-off opening
